

Publishing house of the Samara State University of Economics (SSUE)

Samara State University of Economics effectively conducts research work in several main scientific areas, which have been formed on the basis of long innovative research and development in the interests of enterprises and organizations of the Samara region, state authorities and local governments, non-profit organizations, business structures of various regions of the Russian Federation. These areas are primarily focused on the study of topical socio-economic problems.

Nowadays, SSUE is a recognized research and consulting center of the Government of the Samara Region and the Union of Employers of the Samara Region in matters of personnel strategies, the study of regional clusters as modern tools for increasing the competitiveness of the region, the justification of educational, scientific initiatives in the clusters and the significance of technology and knowledge transfer in the innovative development of the region .

Publisher address: 443090, Samara, Soviet Army street, 141

Phone: (846) 933-88-77

E-mail: vestnik_sgeu@mail.ru